

NARRATIVE RELATED TO THE ANTI-DRUGS CURRICULUM IN THE PAUD (EARLY EDUCATION SCHOOLS), IN COOPERATION WITH KPK (CORRUPTION ERADICATION COMMISSION)

Head of Education Close Workshop With KPK

Arrival of Education Office of Surabaya (Dispendik) Dr. Ikhsan, S, Psi, MM was greeted by dozens of early childhood teachers who were attending the workshop grow the character of honesty, yesterday (19/9) at the Hotel Mercure.

For two days, the early childhood teachers have been getting guidance and direction directly from the Commission related to regenerate kembangka honesty to the character of early childhood in order to create a corruption-free Indonesia in the year 2045.

The workshop with teachers of early childhood Commission formally closed by Kadispendik Surabaya Dr. Ikhsan, S.Psi, MM. In his speech, Ikhsan argued that the role of early childhood teachers is very important, in cultivating an attitude of honesty to the early childhood in order to realize the golden generation that is free of corruption in 2045.

Ikhsan also added that systemic anti-corruption education when instilled from an early age will have very remarkable in influencing a child's growth that has the character of anti-corruption and greater impact in realizing Indonesia is free from corruption.

Stakeholders Unite to Combat Corruption

Corruption today is growing rapidly in Indonesia. In case after case of corruption has been uncovered by the Commission. Starting from state officials to entrepreneurs. Trillions of rupiah in state losses caused by corruption, make the people become miserable. Money that should be used to help thousands of students who can not afford to pay school fees, is wasted due to rampant corruption.

This morning (28/06), at the Hotel Santika. The Corruption Eradication Commission (KPK), through the Deputy Prevention Directorate of Education and Human Services, held a workshop with the stakeholders who mostly come from the field of education in order to prevent widespread corruption.

Deputy Ryan Herviansyah Prevention Commission explained that the workshop "Collaboration Everyone Can Fight Corruption" is a series of activities undertaken by KPK in order to invite the community to anticipate, provide kotribusi as well as participation in a joint effort to eradicate corruption.

Meanwhile, Head of the Education Department Surabaya Dr. Ikhsan, S.Psi, MM appointed head of the Commission as perwakilan Surabaya government departments revealed that the joint Commission of corruption prevention activities have been conducted in several schools in Surabaya, but this year the Commission wants to spread its wings to various stakeholders. Therefore Dispendik invite some stakeholders to participate in the event. "So this workshop later complete, none of the board of education, PGRI, students, mothers early childhood, and the National Archives and Library Surabaya (Baprus)".

Irawati, Deputy Prevention Commission staff revealed that collects stakeholders, aims to create the city of Surabaya is free of corruption. "Later the Commission together with the stakeholders will organize an action that aims to make Surabaya free from corruption", he said